

CORE Kidney Program

Thank you for considering a tax-deductible donation. Your contribution will serve as a valuable resource as we continue pursuing innovative advances in kidney disease, high blood pressure and diabetes research, education and outreach. Your unrestricted donation is tax-deductible. UCLA is a public, non-profit educational institution exempt under Section 501 (c) (3) of the IRS code. The tax payer ID is: 95-2250801.

Anjay Rastogi, M.D., Ph.D is Professor and Clinical Chief of Nephrology at UCLA Health and David Geffen School of Medicine. Dr. Rastogi completed his graduate training under the mentorship of Nobel Laureate Professor Louis Ignarro. He was awarded the UCLA Exceptional MD of the Year Award in 2014 for his demonstration of the UCLA values of Compassion, Respect, Excellence, Discovery, Integrity, and Teamwork. He is the founder of the CORE Kidney Program at UCLA. He directs the Clinical Research Program, Living Kidney Donor Program, Dialysis Program, and the PKD Program. Besides research and clinical activities, he is heavily involved in education and outreach. With his commitment to train our future generation, Dr. Rastogi founded The Bruin Beans Health Club (BBHC), an official UCLA undergraduate club that aims to foster future leaders in healthcare through mentorship opportunities, volunteering, and workshops.

Thank you for joining us and sharing our vision to fight against kidney disease; our goal is to establish a Kidney Center at UCLA, where we can provide comprehensive care to our kidney patients and their entire families, starting from pre-diagnosis to transplant.
